

Job Opening – Darmstadt/Germany

Working student

AGT is all about striving for the best Analytics for the Internet of Things!

Being always in search of new ideas turning into great new features and products, we would love to meet and welcome team members who can join the ride and drive us forward to one of our offices: US (San Francisco, New York), Switzerland (Zurich), Germany (Darmstadt) and Israel (Herzliya).

Position Summary

We are looking for a student for Horizon 2020 EU research project 'Hobbit' (<http://project-hobbit.eu/>) for 6 months. As a member of our agile R&D team you will do:

- Develop distributed benchmarking platform for Big Linked Data using modern technologies: Docker, Rabbit MQ, Amazon Web Services in the context of micro-services architecture.
- Investigate Semantic Ontologies, Linked Data, Machine Learning approaches to data management in IoT domain

Requirements

- Student with a good programming skills (basic algorithms, data structures)
- Java fluency
- The ability to spend 6 months in Germany (Darmstadt)
- Good spoken English

Our offer

- 6 months, 40 hours/week
- Help with visa
- Salary 1200 euro/months (FYI, apartment rent costs 700-900 euro/months)

Contact Senior Researcher, Roman Katerinenko, rkaterinenko@agtinternational.com